Justice Department to protect women seeking an abortion in Texas

Attorney General Merrick Garland said Monday that the Justice Department would protect women seeking an abortion in Texas as the agency explores ways to challenge one of the most restrictive laws in the nation.

In a statement, Garland said the department would “protect those seeking to obtain or provide reproductive health services pursuant to our criminal and civil enforcement of the” law known as the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act.

A Florida Gunman Killed 4, Including A Mother Who Was Still Cradling Her Baby

Updated September 5, 2021 6:34 PM ET

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

<https://www.npr.org/2021/09/05/1034474532/a-florida-gunman-killed-4-including-a-mother-who-was-still-cradling-her-baby>

Meanwhile, officers heard cries for help inside the home, but were unsure whether there were additional shooters and feared the home was booby-trapped. A brave sergeant rushed in and grabbed an 11-year-old girl who had been shot at least seven times.

She told deputies there were three dead people inside, Judd said, adding that she was rushed into surgery and was expected to survive.

Deputies sent robots into the home to check for explosives and other traps. When it was clear, they found the unidentified mother and baby, Gleason and the family dog all dead from gunshot wounds. The baby's grandmother was also found dead in a home out back. Authorities did not say if or how Gleason was related to the other people in the home.

"They begged for their lives and I killed them anyway," Judd said Riley told them during an interrogation, adding Riley was playing mind games during the interviews with detectives.

"Prior to this morning, this guy was a war hero. He fought for his country in Afghanistan and Iraq," said Judd. "And this morning he's a cold-blooded killer."

Riley, who had no criminal history, also told authorities he was on methamphetamines. His vehicle had also been stocked with supplies for a gunfight, authorities said, including bleeding control kits.

While being treated at the hospital, Riley jumped up and tried to grab an officer's gun. "They had to fight with him again in the emergency room," Grady said, before he was ultimately tied down and medicated.

Polk Sheriff: 'Shooting rampage' in Lakeland left 4 dead, including a baby

By Spectrum News Staff Polk County

UPDATED 3:42 PM ET Sep. 05, 2021 PUBLISHED 10:24 AM ET Sep. 05, 2021

<https://www.baynews9.com/fl/tampa/news/2021/09/05/polk-sheriff-office-investigating--shooting-rampage->

POLK COUNTY, Fla. — In a "bizarre occurrence," four people were killed, including a baby, during a "shooting rampage" in Lakeland early Sunday morning.

Polk County Sheriff Grady Judd said the suspect shot at two different homes along North Socrum Loop Road, killing four and injuring an 11-year-old girl. The girl, who was shot multiple times, is being treated at Tampa General, according to authorities. She's expected to survive.

The suspect also shot the family's dog.

Judd says the crime scene and investigation is just beginning and will take days. He identified the suspect as Bryan Riley, 33, of Brandon.

The sheriff's office says Riley claimed he was on meth and that he was a survivalist when he was taken into custody. Judd says Riley's girlfriend and family also say he was an honorably-discharged Marine who suffered from PTSD and in the last week or so believed he could talk to God.

Police lieutenant accused of shoving flashlight between teen suspect's buttocks
<https://www.wfla.com/news/crime/police-lieutenant-accused-of-shoving-flashlight-between-teen-suspects-buttocks/>

This undated photo provided by the Cook County, Ill, Sheriff's Department shows Wilfredo Roman. Roman, a Chicago police lieutenant on Thursday, Sept. 2, 2021, became the fourth member of the department to appear in court on felony charges in recent weeks, with prosecutors accusing him of shoving his flashlight into the buttocks of a teenage carjacking suspect, but over his clothes.

The suspects were taken into custody by other officers a short time later and, according to McDonnell, Roman shoved the flashlight between the buttocks of one of the teens while he was lying handcuffed on the ground, and said as he walked away, "That's what you get for carjacking."
